

Introduction to Autism

Overview

Participants will be introduced to basic concepts and theories relating to Autism Spectrum Disorders. The notion of autism as a spectrum disorder will be explored along with biological, psychological and behavioural aspects of the condition. The workshop will introduce practical approaches alongside theoretical principles. It will be interactive with opportunities for discussion and questions.

Outline Programme

- What is Autism?
- Triad of Impairment
- Communication
- Socialisation
- Imagination
- A Spectrum Disorder
- Common Characteristics
- Summary Questions & Discussion

Qualification information

Designed for: Practitioners new to the field of autism

Course duration: One day programme

New Directions Certificate Issued

